

NORTH CAROLINA FOLKLORE

Every reader is invited to submit items or manuscripts for publication, preferably of the length of those in this issue. Subscriptions, other business communications, and contributions should be sent to

Editor of North Carolina Folklore

The University of North Carolina

Box 523

Chapel Hill, North Carolina.

Annual subscription, $2 for adults, $1 for students (including membership in The North Carolina Folklore Society). Price of this number, $.50.

THE NORTH CAROLINA FOLKLORE SOCIETY

Russell M. Grumman, Chapel Hill, President

Mrs. O. Max Gardner, Shelby, 1 Vice President

R. M. Walser, Raleigh, 2 Vice President

Arthur Palmer Hudson, Chapel Hill, Secretary-Treasurer

The North Carolina Folklore Society was organized in 1912, to encourage the collection, study, and publication of North Carolina Folklore. It is affiliated with the American Folklore Society.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA FOLKLORE COUNCIL

Russell Grumman, Chairman

Arthur Palmer Hudson, Vice Chairman and Archivist

Robert White Linker, Secretary-Treasurer

The Folklore Council was organized in September, 1935, to promote the cooperation and coordination of all those interested in folklore, and to encourage the collection and preservation, the study and interpretation, and the active perpetuation and dissemination of all phases of folklore. It sponsors the annual Carolina Folk Festival at Chapel Hill, usually in the month of June.